Weather and Emergency Procedures

School Closings/Delays Announcements regarding school closings due to inclement weather or other emergencies will be posted on social media and reported on WFMZ television and online broadcast, as well as through our text message alert system (Caller Id #956-64).

Scenario & Transport Type	What Happens & What to Expect
If AACMS Announces a Closing	* Virtual Learning: Students complete work for each class online independently.
If Your Local School District Announces a Closing	* No Busing: Your child's bus transportation will not run, even if AACMS is open. * Parent Decision: If AACMS remains open, it is up to the parent to provide alternative transportation to school. * Virtual Learning: If AACMS is also closed, students complete work for each class online independently.
If AACMS Announces a 2-Hour Delay	* Delayed Pickup: Your child's bus will pick them up approximately two hours later than the normally scheduled time IF your district is also delayed. If your district is closed or on a regular schedule, it is up to the parent to provide alternative transportation to school.
If Your Local School District Announces a 2-Hour Delay	* Delayed Pickup: Your child's bus will pick them up approximately two hours later than the normally scheduled time. This applies even if AACMS is operating on a regular schedule.
If Your Local School District Announces an Early Dismissal	* Early Departure: Your child's bus will leave school early at a time set by your local school district. Buses may arrive at AACMS earlier or later than scheduled depending on the driver. AACMS will do its best to share updated departure times via the website and email alerts.
If Your Child Travels via Car (Parent Pick-up)	* Follow AACMS Schedule: Please follow the specific closing, delay, or early dismissal schedule announced by AACMS. * Delay Drop-off: On a 2-hour delay schedule, AACMS doors open to students at 9:25 AM.

When a district announces a delay or closure and AACMS is open, students who do not come to school are required to make up any missed assignments or assessments.
